Justin,

The case summary that you provided was nicely done. I have attached the ECR to this email along with Oregon's information. I am not sure if you already had this email or not. Let me know after your read of the ECR if there are specific questions regarding what needs to go to HQ. KLB

Hi Kimberly and Fatima!

Hope you two are well!

The Oregon Department of Agriculture (ODA) has been working extremely hard in tracking down products that are contaminated with multiple other active ingredients. Recently, they identified a supplemental product called, TRIPLE ACTION NEEM OIL (EPA Reg. No. 70051-2-829; EPA Est. No. 829-FL-1), that contained the undisclosed contaminants malathion, chlorpyrifos, and permethrin. The company is called Southern Agricultural Insecticides, Inc. out of Palmetto, Florida. The Registrant is Certis USA, LLC out of Columbia, Maryland.
